

Pennsylvania Highlands Community College Library
Donation of Materials Policy

The Pennsylvania Highlands Community College will accept donations of library materials. Once accepted, the library reserves the right to incorporate the materials into the collection in accord with the Collection Development Plan or to dispose of the materials in an appropriate manner. The library assumes no responsibility to notify the donor of any action taken regarding the materials.

A record of donated materials will be kept on file in the library.

-Reviewed December 6, 2021